TecLines TUS019 Lockable Undercounter Drawer

Description

A tidy workspace promotes efficient work in the office or home office. The TecLines Slim pull-out under-desk drawer offers a space-saving solution for the secure storage of writing utensils, office supplies, and personal items directly beneath the desk surface. Its slim design keeps the work surface clear while keeping essential items within easy reach. The lockable TecLines TUS019 under-desk drawer mounts discreetly under desks, creating additional storage space. The integrated lock reliably protects confidential documents and personal belongings from unauthorized access. This makes the desk drawer ideal for offices, home offices, and shared-desk environments.

Made of robust PVC, the pull-out under-desk drawer boasts a durable and easy-to-clean finish. The integrated compartments help keep pens and accessories organized. The smooth-running drawer mechanism allows for convenient access to the contents. TecLines – Intelligent technology through creative innovation.
